LISTING OF APPENDICES TO THE FOURTH REPORT SUPPLEMENT

APPENDIX A CNRL Claim

APPENDIX B Consent Order

APPENDIX C Notice of Disallowance

INTRODUCTION

1. This is the Receiver's supplement to the Fourth Report (the "Fourth Report Supplement" or this "Report"), filed to provide this Honourable Court with background and information on the late-filed proof of claim of Canadian Natural Resources Limited ("CNRL"), and the request of CNRL for their proof of claim to be accepted for the purposes of receiving a distribution from the Purchase Price Funds.

2. Additionally, this Report is filed to provide this Honourable Court with the Receiver's position regarding the Revised RVO declaration.

3. Capitalized words or terms not otherwise defined in this Report shall have the meaning ascribed in the Receivership Order, the reports filed by the Receiver in these Receivership Proceedings[1] and the Claims Procedure Order.

TERMS OF REFERENCE

4. In preparing this Report, the Receiver has relied upon: (i) the representations of certain former management and other key stakeholders of the Company; (ii) financial and other information contained in the Company's books and records, which were produced and maintained principally by the Company; and (iii) information obtained by the Proposal Trustee prior to the Receivership Proceedings.

5. The Receiver has not performed an audit, review or otherwise attempted to verify the accuracy or completeness of the Company's financial information that would wholly or partially comply with Canadian Auditing Standards ("CASs") pursuant to the Chartered Professional Accountants Canada Handbook, and accordingly,

[1] The First Report of the Receiver dated October 6, 2025; the Supplement to the First Report of the Receiver dated October 24, 2025; the Second Report of the Receiver dated November 5, 2025; the Supplement to the Second Report of the Receiver dated November 12, 2025; the Third Report of the Receiver dated February 2, 2026; and the Fourth Report of the Receiver dated September 8, 2026.

the Receiver expresses no opinion or other form of assurance contemplated under CASs in respect of the financial information.

6. All references to dollars are in Canadian currency unless otherwise noted.

CNRL CURE COST CLAIM

7. On September 11, 2026, CNRL submitted a proof of claim to the Receiver (the "CNRL Claim"). The CNRL Claim is a Cure Cost Claim in the amount of $88,233.15, representing amounts owing from Cleo to CNRL prior to the Receivership Date (the "Pre-Filing Balance"). A copy of the CNRL Claim is attached to this Report as Appendix "A".

8. CNRL did not submit a proof of claim to the Receiver prior to March 31, 2026 (the "Claims Bar Date") because it believed the Pre-Filing Balance would be satisfied by 2698902 Alberta Corporation (the "269 Corp.")[2], rather than through the Claims Procedure on the basis that:

    a) CNRL had entered into a settlement agreement with 269 Corp. on October 17, 2025 ("Settlement Agreement"), pursuant to which 269 Corp. agreed to pay the Pre-Filing Balance in full; and

    b) when 269 Corp. failed to pay the amounts owing under the Settlement Agreement, CNRL sought and obtained an order from this Court on January 16, 2026 (the "Consent Order"), directing 269 Corp. to pay CNRL, among other things, the Pre-Filing Balance. A copy of the Consent Order is attached to this Report as Appendix "B".

9. CNRL informed the Receiver that it submitted the CNRL Claim 164 days after the Claims Bar Date because 269 Corp. failed to comply with its obligations under both the Settlement Agreement and the Consent Order, and CNRL's efforts at enforcement were unsuccessful. As a result of its inability to collect the Pre-Filing Balance from 269 Corp., CNRL is now seeking to receive a distribution of the same from the Purchase Price Funds.

[2] 269 AB was the Purchaser in the Transaction contemplated by the SPA and in the Revised RVO granted by the Court on November 14, 2026.

10. On September 11, 2026, the Receiver issued a notice of disallowance to CNRL (the "Notice of Disallowance"), which is attached to this Report as Appendix "C". The Notice of Disallowance disallowed the CNRL Claim on the basis that:

    a) it was submitted to the Receiver on September 11, 2026, which is 164 days after the Claims Bar Date of March 31, 2026; and

    b) it relates to amounts owed to CNRL by 269 Corp., and not ResidualCo, pursuant to the Settlement Agreement and the Consent Order.

11. The Receiver understands CNRL will be submitting a Notice of Dispute to the Receiver in response to the Notice of Disallowance. CNRL has indicated that it intends to oppose the proposed distribution being sought at the Receiver's September 16, 2026, application (the "September 16 Application") on the basis that the CNRL Claim meets the test for the admission of a late claim established by the Court of Appeal of Alberta in Enron Canada Corp. v National Oil-Well Canada Ltd., 2000 ABCA 285, namely:

    a) Was the delay caused by inadvertence and if so, did the claimant act in good faith?

    b) What is the effect of permitting the claim in terms of the existence and impact of any relevant prejudice caused by the delay?

    c) If relevant prejudice is found, can it be alleviated by attaching appropriate conditions to an order permitting late filing?

    d) If relevant prejudice is found which cannot be alleviated, are there any other considerations which may nonetheless warrant an order permitting late filing?

12. The Receiver is of the view that the CNRL Claim does not meet the test for the admission of a late claim based on the following:

    a) the delay was not caused by an inadvertence. CNRL was aware of the Claims Procedure and did not submit a claim (or a placeholder claim) until 164 days after the Claims Bar Date;

    b) permitting the CNRL Claim would result in the Pre-Filing Balance being paid in its entirety from the Purchase Price Funds, which would reduce the proposed ResidualCo Funds Distribution to the Municipalities and the AER by approximately $88,000;

    c) the prejudice to the Municipalities and the AER cannot be alleviated by attaching conditions to an order permitting late filing; and

    d) in light of the facts outlined in the Notice of Disallowance, there are no other considerations that would warrant an order permitting late filing.

13. The Receiver is providing this information for the Court's consideration and direction with respect to the proposed distribution sought at the September 16 Application.

REVISED RVO DECLARATION

14. As set out in the Fourth Report, the Receiver has remitted the Super Priority Amount to the ESDC that was the result of ESDC issuing the WEPP Payments. Despite clawing back the WEPP Payments, ESDC has not, and does not propose to return the Super Priority Amount paid, which impacts the receivership estate. This is a matter that fits squarely in the administration of the receivership.

15. Employees continue to reach out to the Receiver regarding their WEPPA eligibility. It is necessary and appropriate that the Receiver on behalf of these stakeholders seek clarity on the impacts of the Revised RVO on their eligibility for the WEPP Payments.

All of which is respectfully submitted this 15th day of September, 2026.
